WHITE'S HOPEFUL VIEW

The British Position at Ladysmith Daily Growing Stronger.

Ample Provisions for the Besieged Force, According to the Commanding General's Latest Message-Hoer Fire Continues at Long Range But Is Defective-Another Reported Outrage on a Flag of Truce-Advices From Esteourt Not So Reassuring-Burghers Said to Be Bringing Up More Heavy Guns-Increased Severity of Bombardment.

LONDON, Nov. 10 .- General Buller today cabled to Secretary Lansdowne from Cape Town the information he received yesterday by carrier pigeon from Ladysmith. General White reports that the bombardment of Ladysmith by the Boers contines daily at long range. The Boer fire, he says, is defective, and little-damage is done. Only a few casualties resulted from the enemy's fire.

Yesterday the Boers sent in a number of refugees from the Transvaal to Ladysmith under a flag of truce, and the enemy again | The various members said that the questook advantage of the circumstance to tion of civil government in Cuba, which it demonstrate their treachery. not say whether or not any casualties resulted from the treachery of the enemy. In conclusion he said his position was growing stronger daily, and that he had ample provisions for his command.

A high military authority in London declares that Great Britain will have to send more than three army corps-at least 150,-000 men in all-to South Africa in order to conquer the Boers. The fact is no longer disguised that the attack on Ladysmith is Rear Admiral Bichborn Submits a hourly increasing in stress and vigor.

Late advices from Estcourt, which is the British post nearest the besieged town, say that both it and the British camp outside ment showing how far the work has progare completely invested and that the artillery firing on both sides is heavy and continuous. Nothing further is heard, however, about the great naval guns which had been used with such effect by the besieged, and it is not doubted that their ammunition has been exhausted. In that case the Boers again have the advantage of longer range, as well of greater number in ordnance. The Boers are bringing up more heavy guns from Johannesburg.

The sorties made by General White have brought him no material successes. There were three engagements around Ladysmith on Friday last. The previous accounts of them brought to Estcourt by native runners were greatly exaggerated. The British lost 150 in killed and wounded in attacking the Boer batteries on Isimbulwana Hill east of the town. The British reports say: "It is supposed that the Boers lost many more."

Natives reported at Estcourt that a no confirmation of this story. It is also said that Colonel Brocklehurst captured a cannon from the Boers in a sortie.

Preparation by the Boers to bring supreme pressure to bear upon Ladysmith is believed to be nearly complete. The announcement that 3,000 of their troops had left Pretoria with big guns for the southern border is thought to be a ruse to hide their real destination, which is probably investing lines at Ladysmith. The quie of the Boers is thought to be ominous.

Military men in this city expect to hear shortly of more Boer guns in position and that the bombardment which has been in progress for ten days has increased in se-

He Thinks the Engagements of Last Week Were Triffing.

LONDON, Nov. 10 .- A military expert in the "Westminster Gazette," commenting on the message from Sir George White forwarded by pigeon post, eavs:

"It is remarkable for the fact that no allusion whatever is made to the heavy fighting reported to have taken place or Thursday and Friday last. Is it credible if, as reported, the British forces fought two successful actions in the neighborhood of Ladysmith, taking some 2,000 Boers prisoners and leaving the veldt strewn with Boer dead—is it credible that General White would pass the fact over in silence? Surely we are justified in answering this question in the negative. Hence we must assume that the fighting on Thursday and assume that the fighting on Thursday and Friday was of an unimportant character, so unimportant that it was not worth mentioning, and that the Boer retirement from Colenso was generally attributed crushing defeat incured by them, These

"It is probable that there was some fighting both Thursday and Friday. We imagine time will show that Thursday's sole engagement was an unimportant cavalry skirmish in the neighborhood of Bester's Farm, to the northwest of Ladysmith, and that Friday's action consisted merely of a demonstration of some force to cover the retirement of a small force carposed chiefly of volunteers, which, venturing too far from Lädysmith in a southerly direction, had become involved in combat rection, had become involved in combat with a superior force of Boers."

The Corcoran Cadets under Capt. E. C. Edwards left the Pennsylvania depot this morning for the Ordway Rifle range at Margruder Station, for rifle practice. The men are doing this voluntarily as they are auxious to make up the time lost since September 1 by reason of the many receptions and parades they have been ordered to attend.

The practice today will be at long range the object being to bring the men up to the standard required by the Government which is 260 points out of 400, in the marksman class, and 320 points out of 400 the sharpshooter class.

Last year there were twenty-three men who qualified in these classes, and Capta n Edwards is making a strong effort this year to beat all former records.

The practice in the gallery, so far, warrants the belief that there will be no difficulty in making these scores. Thirty men have already qualified as marksmen. The athletic feature of the Guard, un-der the direction of Prof. Joseph Horan, is said to be making great progress. There are fifty men in the class and Captain Edwards says there is no reason why there should not be more, as this work is of Filipinos Suffer Heavily in a Fight at Bamban.

Daring Exploit of an American Detachment Under Colonel Bell-A Small Party Defeats a Hundred Rebels - Bayombong Proclaimed as the Capital by Aguinaldo

MANILA. Nov. 10 (11;25 a. m.) -General MacArthur sent out three parties from Mabalacat yesterady to reconnective the enemy's position. Colonel Smith, of the Twelfth Infantry, commanded the party on the right, Lieutenant Slavens had charge of the centre wing, and Colonel Bell, of the Thirty-sixth Infantry, had the left.

A considerable force of Filipinos was lo cated in front of Bamban. Slavens' party got close enough to see them destroy a locomotive. Colonel Bell, with five officers and two men of the Thirty-sixth, and Captain Hawkins and ten men of Troop E, Fourth Cavalry, skirted the foothills west of the railroad, and succeeded, after daring, difficult, and skillful work, in reaching a trench. No sooner had they done so than a hundred insurgents charged upon them. They were promptly repulsed with a loss of nineteen killed and wounded, including their captain. Six prisoners and thirty Mauser rifles were captured. The Americans suffered no loss.

MacArthur's command is busily forwarding supplies to Colonel Hayes' squadron, of the Fourth Cavalry, which is firmly entrenched at Allaga. Derrington's scouting party reached San Jose yesterday by way of Santo Domingo, General Young, with a troop of the Third cavalry and a company of Maccabebes direct from Talavera is also at San Jose. The arrival of the Americans met with no resistance, the insurgents promptly fleeing to the footbills just beyond the town. The Maccabebes captured a rebel commissary officer with $200 in his pockets. They also captured a son of General Lenaro, supposed to be a colonel. A quantity of ammunition, including 540 rounds for a Hotchkiss breech block 3-inch gun was

The other squadrons of the Fourth Cavalry, with the Twenty-second and Thirtyseventh Infantries and a supply train, are oushing out toward Cabanatuan

War Department officials are fully satisfied that Aguinaldo has fled to Bayombong in the province of Vizcaya. The latest information from General Otis confirms this belief. General Otis reports that word has been received in Manila that Aguinaldo has moved his headquarters to Bayombong and has proclaimed that the Filipino capital. It is not believed that he has his army with him and General Otis will now direct that vigorous efforts be made to break up the insurgent forces. It is not proposed to abandon the plan of sending troops in pursuit of the insurgent leader and advices from General Otis today indicate that both General Lawton's column and that under General Wheaton will move in the direction of Bayombong.

Several despatches were received today from General Otis, but they were not all made public. In one cablegram General Otis corrects his despatch of yesterday, saying that General Wheaton had landed at Lingayen instead of San Fabian, General Otis admits the correctness of the cablegram sent by Admiral Watson and says: "Report received yesterday concerning land at San Fabian as directed and drove ulk of enemy back in desired direction to ward Dugapan. His operations completely successful in every particular." Information from official sources at the War Department is that General Wheaton will continue his advance eastward to St. Nicolas, at the foot of the mountain range which bounds the province of Nueva Vizcaya on the west. Meanwhile General Lawton will push rapidly toward Carrangclan, which General Otis believes will be occupied today by the troops under General Young. It is the present intention to have General Wheaton move northward from St. Nicolas to Aritao, which is less than twenty-five miles from Bayombong. It is not considered probable that General Lawton will continue northward beyond Carrangelan unless it should be ascertained that Aguinaldo has a large force with him at Bayombong. The active operations under General Mac-Arthur will continue with a view to the disintegration of the insurgents in Tarlac province and General Otis reports that this advance will begin tomorrow. An indication that the insurgents hope to establish themselves in the far north country and robably where Aguinaldo is now located is and in the capture of considerable ordnance in transit north from the country around Cabanatuan. General Otis remarks about the captured mmunition are construed at the War De partment to mean that there were captured 144 rounds of 2-inch ammunition and ty-two hoves of 65-inch ammunition all for the Hotchkiss guns, fifty projectile for 5 and 8-inch cannon, two boxes of

Th Industrial Commission this morning leclined to accept the testimony of George Rice, of Marietta, Ohio, as he had prepared t, and informed the prospective witness that unless certain portions of it were stricken out he would be debarred from testifying. Mr. Rice was to have delivered estimony against the Standard Gil Com-

Members of the Commission when asked why Mr. Rice was not permitted to testify, amphlet submitted reflected severely upon President McKinley, former Presidents Reveland and Harrison, Attorney General Griggs, and former Attorneys General Olney and Miller, and upon the Interstate Commerce Commission, and they said the vidence was not supported by the facts.

Mr. Rice, at the request of the Com-mission, arrived in Washington yesterday, prepared to go before that body today. He had prepared his testimony in pamphlet form and had copyrighted it. This morn-ing shortly after 10 o'clock, when Mr. Rice appeared at the chambers of the Commission in the Bliss Building, he was sum-moned to attend a star chamber session of the Commission which continued until after 12 o'clock. Mr. Rice was to have gone on the stand at 10:20 o'clock.

At the adjournment of the secret session
Mr. Rice stated to representatives of the press that his testimony was objected to by the Commission and that before the would be permitted to take the stand certain portions of it would have to be strick-en out. Mr. Rice has not yet agreed to accede to the demands of the Commissioners and will have until tomorrow in which to

He is thoroughly familiar with the methods of the Standard Oil Company and his testimony which was to have been delivered today, it is said, contained state-ments which the Commission did not care to have recorded in the published testimony. Mr. Rice was requested about ten days ago to send a statement of what his testi-mony would contain to the Commission. This he refused to do, claiming that the non being captured. All the proceedings in the case seem to me to be very peculiar and out of the ordinary." All the facts will be presented to the Navy Department and Commission had no right to make such a rival in town Mr. Rice was waited upon by Prof. Jenks, who endeavored to get from him a statement of what his evidence would be. Whether Prof. Jenks failed to secure the information or not is not known. At any rate this morning he was called before the secret session of the Com-mission and induced, by what means is not known, to permit an examination of his testimony. It is not known what argument was employed to compel Mr. Rice to Ci-vulge his testimony, but it is stated that he was told that he could not testify unless he should meet the desire of the Commis-gioners. According to the rules of the Commission this can be legitimately done, as it has been decided that witnesses who present prepared statements must submit such ies-timony to the Commission before taking the stand. Such parts of testimony of this pected to omit all proscribed sections. About one-fourth of the prepared state-ment submitted by Mr. Rice, it is said, was
